The Third Largest Corporate Travel Company Signs Agreement with Registered Traveler Program.

ATLANTA, MAY 3, 2006 - BCD Travel, the third largest global corporate travel management company, announced today that they will become a marketing partner of Verified ID, offering customers discounted registration in the Clear™ program. Clear's registered traveler program provides frequent travelers with a fast pass through airport security.

"We are pleased to announce this new service for our customers," said Mike Buckman, CEO of BCD Travel. "This is one of several new product and service offerings we will be launching aimed at streamlining and simplifying the travel experience for our clients and their business travelers."

Clear members receive fast access through airport security checkpoints by verifying their biometric information in specially-designated Clear lanes. Clear makes security clearance at the airport less stressful and more consistent.

"We're pleased to have this partnership with BCD Travel, one of the leaders in global corporate travel," said Fred Fischer, Verified ID's senior vice president of sales. "Clear will get you through security lines faster and with less hassle."

BCD Travel's corporate customers will be offered discounts on first year memberships for their frequent travelers registering for the Clear program. For ease in registration, any corporation enrolling two hundred and fifty (250) or more employees at one location, during a single time period may elect for Verified ID to provide on-site enrollment for its employees.
