

MusicNet Expands Catalog to 2 Million Tracks
World's Leading Business-to-Business Digital Music Service Provider
Bolsters Industry's Largest Library of Licensed Music for Subscription and Purchase

NEW YORK, NY, Sept 27, 2005 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ -- MusicNet, the world's leading business-to-business digital music service provider, today announced that it has expanded its catalog of licensed music to 2 million tracks -- the largest available in the industry today for subscription and purchase. MusicNet, whose distribution partners include Yahoo!, HMV, Virgin Digital, AOL, iMesh, Cdigix, and Charter, RCN and Adelphia (through Synacor), offers a suite of fully customized digital music experiences, including the ability to buy digital music subscriptions, portable subscriptions and downloads.

"Expanding our library to 2 million tracks is both a Company and industry milestone, and it is also testimony to consumers' increasing demand for digital music," said Alan McGlade, President and CEO of MusicNet. "Our Content team is dedicated to adding new genres, record labels and artists to our catalog so that we can offer our partners the most comprehensive collection to meet their customers' individual needs."

MusicNet's catalog of 2 million licensed tracks for subscription and purchase represents all of the major record labels and more than more than 25,000 independent labels. In addition, the catalog is comprised of tens-of-thousands of artists and 23 genres of music, including Alternative, Hip Hop, Rock, Country, Pop, Latin, R&B, Jazz, Blues, Classical, Opera, Christian and Gospel, Electronica, World and Spoken Word.
