

BROADVIEW NETWORKS TO PARTICIPATE AS PANELIST AT CAPITAL 2.0 CONFERENCE

RYE BROOK, NY-- (BUSINESS WIRE)— September 25, 2007-- Broadview Networks, a leading provider of integrated business communications and managed network services throughout the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic U.S., will speak at Capital 2.0: Funding the Telco Future on September 26, 2007. Michael K. Robinson, President and Chief Executive Officer of Broadview Networks, will be a panelist on Investor ROI: IPOs and Mergers and Acquisitions from 3:30–5:00 PM on Wednesday, September 26th, at the Embassy Suites in Secaucus, New Jersey.

“Broadview’s executive team has a deep understanding of what it takes to build value for investors in telecommunications,” said Michael K. Robinson, President and Chief Executive Officer of Broadview Networks. “Within the past twelve months alone, our knowledge and experience has enabled us to acquire and begin to integrate two telco entities, ATX Communications and InfoHighway Communications, into Broadview. As the market consolidates further, we will focus on organic growth and continue to evaluate additional strategic opportunities.”

Bob Wallace, Executive Editor of xchange magazine, the conference sponsor, commented on the value Mr. Robinson brings to the conference. “We sought out Mike for his deep knowledge of, and broad experience in, the telecom industry to anchor our Investor ROI panel at the Capital 2.0 conference. As a veteran industry leader, he and the other panelists will give attendees a clear view and vision of the interplay of telecom and capital markets.”

Capital 2.0 will be held concurrently with the Channel Partners Conference and Expo at the Meadowlands Exposition Center in Secaucus, New Jersey. Broadview will exhibit at the Channel Partners Conference and Expo, September 26-28, 2007, at Booth 200-202.
